2020 NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS FOR BIKERS

Most people make New Year's resolutions that they never intend to keep... silly ideas like lose weight, quit smoking, exercise more, drink less etc. But these lame resolutions are NOT for bikers! NO WAY!

We did a quick survey of friends and fellow riders, and the top 3 resolutions for motorcyclists are:

1. Ride More
2. Ride More Often
3. Ride as Much as I Possibly Can

Other resolutions include:

- Do a Poker Run and get out to a Rally
- Go on a once-in-a-lifetime global Adventure Ride

Some others include:

- Learn to wrench on my bike
- Read "Zen and The Art of Motorcycle Maintenance"
- Fix up the CB250 in my garage, and get it running or sell it for parts on eBay

And my two personal favorites are:

- Get a custom paint job on my gas tank
- Get a belly tattoo to match my tank!

AQUAMAN TOURS THE HARLEY-DAVIDSON FACTORY

Actor Jason Momoa, who stars as Aquaman, took a trip to the Harley-Davidson Factory and went on a Museum Tour. Watch this video to see for yourself what the experience was like and get an up-close look at the factory. They have every Harley-Davidson motorcycle model on display – from 1903 to 2020. www.GetMore-Info.com/tour

And if you like motorcycle movies... (and who doesn't?!)...you've got to ask yourself "How cool would it be to make your own biker movie?" That's exactly what Jason Momoa did – directing, producing and starring in "Road to Paloma" (2014), an action adventure movie with lots of grit and hard riding across back roads and desolate highways. The movie casts Jason as Wolf, a Native American running from the law on his motorcycle after avenging his mother's murder. Stream it on Amazon Prime.
